My Dear Sir:

You promised to send me a few impressions of the Brighton pictures when you should return to Washington, did you do so? or I suppose you saw so much on your trip that it quite slipped your mind. May I trouble you to do so, I have promised to send a couple to G. B. B.'s relatives in Albany &c. You might send 3 mounted - 3 unmounted.

P.O. Order sent

My dear Mr McLeod

I trust you have heard the last of that lost picture. Mr Benton tells me that the case will come up about the first of January and I trust that the last deposition will end your troubles and that I will be able to recover what may be due me - I wish now to relieve you of another charge and that is the pictures that have been an Exhibition in the Gallery.

Has Mr. Corcoran ever mentioned the matter further to you - I wish he would take the large one and pay me for the frame $80 - The pictures would then cost him $850 - being the original $500 and ten years interest @ 7 Per Cent. If possible I would like to have a decision - and would like you to send me the two smaller pictures at your earliest convenience (unless some one would buy them) I think the pictures ~~had~~ were boxed and you may have the box or some other. Should be at any expense let me know and I will immediately forward the amount to you - This time I wish you to send by freight - either by Steamer or B & O R.R. - or you may send by express to the Steamer ~~John~~ Crane from Baltimore to Boston direct. Direct-the Box to "care of Williams & Everett, 508 Washington St.

Boston and they will pay the freight charges -

Indeed I regret giving you trouble

but cannot help it just-now, and trust you will be troubled no more. I hope Mr C will accept my proposal if he does not like the pictures I will point another but could not do so just ~~now~~ at present as I must complete some work for a sale that I have on hand -

My sincere regards to your family and most earnest thanks for your kindness, Mrs Key joins me in all compliments to you -

Ever sincerely your friend
